

Privacy Notice – Staff/Workers

John Leggott College's data protection vision is to create a culture of protecting privacy and personal data. Personal data is information which 'relates to and identifies a living individual'. Personal data should be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary. We hold and process any personal data, including special category data, relating to you in accordance with our legal obligations in the manner set out in this Privacy Notice and the College's GDPR policy.

Categories of staff/workers information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth)
- Attendance information (such as number of absences and absence reasons)
- Relevant medical information
- Next of Kin details
- Performance Management Reviews (PMR)
- Recruitment Data (e.g. Interview notes, candidate selection)
- Criminal Convictions (part of the DBS checks)
- Legal requirements (e.g. Single Central Register)
- Vehicle Registration Details
- Recordings of Lessons (Voices & sometimes Images)

Why do we collect and use staff/workers information?

We collect and use staff/workers information under Article 6 (1) of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016:

- To fulfil the contract each member of staff/worker signs with the college upon employment*
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject*
- Processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject*
- Processing is necessary in order for us to carry out a public task*

Special category data is processed under Article 9 (2):

- Processing is necessary for the purpose of carrying out obligations under employment and social security and social protection law*

We use staff/workers data:

- to provide appropriate staff/workers support, care and guidance
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to ensure we meet all statutory employment requirements
- to safeguard students
- to fulfil payroll and pensions obligations and provide information to appropriate third parties

We will use the information provided in a manner that conforms to the Data Protection Act 1998, the UK General Data Protection Regulation 2016 and the Human Rights Act 1998.

We do not undertake any automated decision making.

Privacy Notice – Staff/Workers

The College is committed to being transparent about how it collects, uses, stores and deletes data and to meeting its data protection obligations.

Collecting staff/workers information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain staff/workers information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing staff/workers data (how long is data held for)

Retention of records is based on the principle that your personal data will not normally be kept for longer than is broadly necessary. The College operates within statutory and best practice timescales for the retention of data. Data retention times are outlined in our separate Data Retention Policy.

How we transfer your personal information outside of the EEA

The college sometimes use third party processors (e.g. Google) which may include international transfers to the EU/USA.

Why we share staff/workers information

We do not share information about our staff/workers with anyone without consent, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We are required to share information about our employees with the Data Barring Service (DBS)

DBS Personal Information Charter: <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service/about/personal-information-charter>

With whom do we share staff/workers information?

We routinely share staff/workers information with:

- Data Barring Service (DBS)
- East Riding Yorkshire Council (Payroll & Pensions)
- Teachers Pension Scheme
- Payroll Provider (HR People)
- On-line employability systems e.g. Grofar
- MIS consultants

These providers are classed as ‘data processors’ and are contractually obliged to keep your details secure and use them only to provide particular services to you or the College in accordance with our instructions.

The College may also share certain information with other bodies that are responsible for auditing to administering public funds including DWP and HMRC.

We occasionally share staff/workers information with:
