11. Definitions & Abbreviations

“Protected Characteristic”. The Equality Act 2010 introduced the term to refer to aspects of a person’s identity to explicitly protect from unlawful discrimination. Nine are identified: - Race; Disability; Gender; Age; Sexual Orientation; Religion and Belief; Gender Reassignment; Pregnancy/Maternity and Marriage/Civil Partnership.

Socio-economic status, class or background is not a “protected characteristic” under the Equality Act, but we consider it important to the experiences of groups of people whose life chances may be affected by their social identity, in particular those from disadvantaged socio-economic backgrounds.

Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED)

“Advance” equality of opportunity involved having due regard to the need to:

- Remove/minimise disadvantages experienced by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic.
- Take steps to meet the needs of people who share a relevant characteristic that are different from the needs of people who don't need it.
- Encourage people with a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activities where participation by such people is disproportionately low.

“Foster” good relations includes having due regard to tackling prejudice and promoting understanding.
